B. Text (70% @ 2%)

How can we get better results in exams? First, plan your study timetable. Then, follow the timetable. You should not study too slowly but you don't have to study very quickly either.

In a written exam, don't panic. First, read the instructions carefully. After that, write your answers neatly. Next, check your answers. Find out the wrong answers that you wrote carelessly. Finally, correct the answers before time is up.
