B. Text (70% @ 2%)

Some children joined a city race. The first checkpoint was a hotel. It was more difficult than they thought!

After some discussion, the children agreed to take the bus from the bus terminal near the train station. The children got off the bus near Kowloon Park. They stopped at a pedestrian crossing and continued walking when the traffic lights turned green. At the end, they ran up and down the road, but they could not find any hotels.
